Participation in the Annual General Meeting or the exercise of voting rights is dependent on shareholders registering prior to the meeting and providing proof of their shareholding. Proof of share ownership must be provided in text form (Section 126b of the German Civil Code) in German or English by the ultimate intermediary, whereby proof of share ownership in accordance with Section 67c (3) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) is sufficient. A facilitation may be stipulated in the notice convening the General Meeting. Section 135 of the German Stock Corporation Act remains unaffected.

(3) In the notice convening the Annual General Meeting, the Company shall appoint a named proxy, including his availability before and during the Annual General Meeting, who will exercise the voting rights for all shareholders at their request and in accordance with their instructions. Paragraph 2 applies accordingly to the authorization of the proxy and to the issuing of instructions. The details of the issuance of instructions shall be determined by the Executive Board in the notice convening the Annual General Meeting. The possibility of authorizing other persons remains unaffected.

Adoption of resolutions by the general meeting

(1) The resolutions of the General Meeting shall require a simple majority of the votes cast, unless the law mandatorily requires otherwise. In cases where the law requires a majority of the share capital represented when the resolution is adopted, a simple majority of the share capital represented shall suffice, unless a larger majority is prescribed by law.

(2) In the event of a tie, a motion shall be deemed rejected.

(3) If a simple majority of votes is not achieved in the first ballot, a run-off election shall be held between the two persons who received the highest number of votes. In the event of an equal number of votes in the second ballot, the decision shall be made by drawing lots.
