

Prof. Dr. Markus H. Thoma /

Supervisory Board and member of the Audit Committee

Prof. Dr. Markus H. Thoma is a member of the Supervisory Board of PVA TePla AG since June 2014.

Professional career

since 2014	Membership in the international Core Team of the ESA space project PK-4
since 2014	Erasmus+ coordinator at the Justus Liebig University Giessen
since 2013	Extraordinary professor at the University of Giessen Since 2013: Professor (W3) of Plasma and Astronautics at the University of Giessen
2001 until 2013	Senior Scientist and Senior Project Scientist at the Max Planck Institute for Extraterrestrial Physics
1996 till 2001	Heisenberg Fellow at the University of Giessen, the ECT* in Trento (Italy), the University of Regensburg and CERN (Geneva)
1995 until 2006	Lecturer ("Privatdozent") at the University of Giessen 1996: Substitute Professor at the University of Regensburg

Further mandates

- Member of the Supervisory Board of PVA TePla AG (since 2014)
- Speaker on the Board of Trustees of the National Center for Plasma Medicine

Education

"Habilitation" (University of Giessen, Institute for Theoretical Physics)